cipum vestrorum praesentiam, si Caesaris legati venirent, polliceremini. Vos neque id quidem polliceri voluistis, immo aperte fassi estis, nisi imperator eo veniret, nihil omnino boni sperandum esse. Quae cum ita sint, nihil iam superest, nisi ut primo tester Deum et sanctos angelos eius ac in eorum conspectu vestras maxime mentes nihil a me, quod imbecillitas mea faciendum intellexerit, praetermissum fuisse; deinde ut M 68v rem omnem et hunc imprimis minime speratum exitum sanctissimo domino nostro nunc litteris, mox viva voce exponam, ut ille, quem superiore anno non hiems, non nives, non longitudo itineris, non asperitas viarum, non sumptus immensi, non proprii status discrimen, non senectus, non morbus ingravescens ab hoc negotio retardavit, qui ut rempublicam christianam tueatur, defendat, custodiat, incolumem conservet, si centum animos haberet, omnes ad hanc rem intenderet, cui populi sui salus dulcior quam propria et fuit semper et est, quique ita huic rei inhaeret animo, ut de vita potius decedere quam de sententia malit, ille, inquam, possit sua divina sapientia tantarum rerum necessitati consulere ac providere et imperatoriae maiestati ac principibus vestris quid ultra faciendum sit, si libuerit, significare. Quod si per me, antequam forte e provincia decesserim, aliud faciendum mandarit, nec recusabo, quominus vel in extremo spiritu, si quam opem reipublicae afferre possem, experiar atque — utinam et iterum utinam liceret me unum pro omnibus hanc indignissimam, quae omnibus imminet, calamitatem haurire — explerem laetissimis animis barbarorum furorem, placarem improborum crudelitatem, perditorum scelus ac perfidiam mei unius sanguine saturarem, modo ex hoc salutem populi Dei secuturam intelligerem.

Epistola B 94

Legatorum omnium Germaniae Principum

Ad Bessarionem Apostolicae Sedis Legatum.

Putabamus grata per nos oblata exstitisse cunctis diebus, quibus illic morati sumus, praesertim dummodo ad clare nostra consilia pandenda ad vestrae iussionis vocem in loco habitationis vestrae pridie comparuimus, accersitique per vestram amplitudinem, ut praefertur, motum mentium nostrarum reseravimus nec quicquam, quod conducere aut impedimento esse posset, abscondimus, etiam adeo quod vestra reverendissima domi- B 94v natio hoc tempore nostram consultationem, nostram considerationem, nostramque familiarem avisationem post plurima humanissima verba non adulando nobis, sed plane dicendo laudavit et probavit, immo necessariam illam fore asseveravit atque pro sua summa bonitate a nobis, qui semper sub potenti manu humiliare nos debemus, si vestris obiurgationibus contristati fuissemus, veniam postulavit. Fecimus hoc bono zelo, non ut oratores dominorum nostrorum, sed tamquam privatae personae, non ut virum maximi consilii instructum redderemus, cum non oporteat solem illustrare facibus, sed ut pro devotione nostra, quod nobis videretur, pulsari probaremus, praesertim attendentes, quantum mutuus caesareae maiestatis, principum et membrorum suorum in Germania ad rem tam sanctam conferret concursus, et, cum dura sit capitis in rebus altissimis separatio a membris, omnia cum consilio agi debere, quodque sanitas corporis in membra redundare habeat, et unguentum descendens a capite extrema vestimenti fimbria participet. Nam una fides, una voluntas atque spiritus unus esse videtur et romani principis et dominorum nostrorum circa ea, quae sunt ad conterendum Turci potentiam et christianae religionis defensionem. Ordo autem atque forma sive modus, quibus hoc negotium fructuose, laudabiliter et salubriter conduci posse videbatur, per nos aperti sunt, et optima voluntas dominorum nostrorum ad prosecutionem tantae rei clare innotuit. Unde audita nunc finali vestrae reverendissimae dominationis quoad praesentem dietam conclusione ad resumendas oblationes dominorum nostrorum descendimus. Fatemur et dicimus, quod ad omnia et singula, quae christianum exercitum contra Turcum instructum facere poterunt, ad ea, quae sunt ad tuitionem christianae religionis, parati et promptissimi sunt conferre, quicquid eorum viribus et potentiae a Deo donatum est. Domini nostri nos miserunt ordine, forma, et modis, prout in superioribus oblationibus et consultationibus nostris plenissime habitum est. In rebus enim tam magnis nequaquam perfunctorie, sed graviter procedendum existimamus. Huiusmodi etiam oblationes repetitas esse volumus toties, quoties fuerit opportunum. De his etiam, quae hoc in loco ventilata sunt et occurrerunt, dominos nostros pro posse nostro certos facere curabimus. Intentionis autem nostrae non est eosdem ad alia obligatos facere, nisi ad illa, quae obtulimus. Otiosum esse non debet. Eosdem dominos nostros personasque nostras recommendatos et recommendatas fieri sanctissimo domino nostro [quod] per personam vestram reverendissimam [fieri] humiliter postulamus et deprecamur.
